Memorandum

TO : Director of Training

DATE: 17 September 1965

FROM : Chief, Career Training Program

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #27

A. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

25X1A

Some time ago you referred to a one-time arrangement whereby draft-eligible CIA personnel could receive military credit for certain types of civilian service in the Agency. Since that time [REDACTED] and I have done a little research on the matter. A total of seven regulations were issued during 1951-1961 on the subject of military deferment and related matters, two of which are worth noting.

25X1A

1. [REDACTED] dated 29 October 1952 (copy attached) established an "Equivalent Military Service Program." I think this undoubtedly is what you had in mind. It contains provisions which are largely of historical interest since it was rescinded on 24 August 1954 by [REDACTED] establishing an Army Enlisted Reserve Program.

25X1A

2. The latter underwent various revisions and was rescinded in 1960. In 1961, however, [REDACTED] "Military Deferment" was issued, and remains currently valid (copy attached). Under its provisions deferments may be requested for draft-eligible employees under conditions which would apply to most CT's.

I am informed by [REDACTED] that the DD/S will consider requests for deferment on an individual case basis. I will keep closely in touch with developments on this subject.

B. NORMAL ACTIVITIES

1. Three new Trainees entered on duty during this reporting period:
